

CAMP Application Addendum

The mentor-mentee match is foundational for building the type of strong relationships required in mentorship. The below application addendum is used to determine applicant's fit with the program, and to create compatible mentor-mentee matches.

1. Imagine you have just finished a full year of mentoring. What does success look like for the student you mentored?
2. What degrees do you hold? Include major and minor fields of study.
3. What activities do you enjoy doing in your spare time that you would like to share with your mentee?
4. What types of personalities do you prefer not to work with (characteristics, skills, demeanor, work ethic)?
5. What is your level of experience with editing and/or providing feedback on written work (ie: personal statements)?

College Access Mentor Program Mentor Application Addendum

6. Does your mentoring style take more of a developmental approach (focus is on fostering relational interactions first before incorporating competency or skill-building activities), or an instrumental approach (focus is primarily on goal-directed activities, putting growing the interpersonal relationship between the mentor and mentee secondary)? Describe.

7. Write a brief statement on why you have chosen to participate in the mentor program.

8. Initial the statements below:

_____ I understand that the mentor program involves spending a minimum of 1-3 hours every week for the academic year at the Living Lab (or an approved alternative public-use space), plus monthly college access workshops, with an assigned student, providing guidance that is appropriate based on student's higher education aspirations.

_____ I understand that Ocean Discovery Institute is liable for all volunteer and student interactions, and I will communicate meeting times and report any suspicious comments or behavior from student in accordance to Ocean Discovery's risk management guidelines.

_____ I understand that it is required to attend all mentor trainings and workshops throughout the year, and I will make every effort to attend required events, or complete make-up work if a time conflict arises.

_____ I understand that I am required to obtain a Live Scan background check and purchase a $5 access badge that allows use of Living Lab space.

By signing below, I ascertain that the information on this addendum is true.
